Gas safety

Risk, access and compliance

There are three certainties in life: death, taxes and gas safety. When change is all around, some things will never change. 100% compliance is expected – there is positively no room for error.

Sponsored by hqn accredit·gas

Tuesday 20 September London Book now

Thursday 22 September Birmingham Book now

Tuesday 27 September Leeds Book now

Join colleagues from across the UK to share best practice and learn from experts about crucial gas safety compliance requirements – and how to meet those requirements right first time.

Delegates will learn:

- Expectations on gas servicing and gas safety expectations, now and in the future
- Guidance from practitioners for delivering:
  - Best practice dealing with access issues
  - Gas servicing in-house and the difference between gas servicing and gas maintenance
- Landlord gas safety record – an interactive workshop featuring in-depth training of how LGSRs must be completed, maintained and audited for 100% accuracy
- A national contractor's view: managing gas compliance, safety, and best practice from the field.

Exclusive!

All delegates will receive a pack featuring valuable practitioner presentations from each session plus the exclusive SAFETYnet gas servicing and safety toolkit. You'll also be eligible for discounted rates on HQN Accredit: Gas.

CPD certification

All delegates will receive a CPD certificate.
