Novotel London St. Pancras

100 – 110 Euston Road, London NW1 2AJ
0207 666 9000
http://www.novotel.com

By car

The hotel is located in the city centre (with a bus stop right outside). By car, take the J1 and exit at Central London.

Public transport

The Novotel London St. Pancras is located on Euston Road, adjacent to the British Library, midway between Euston Station, and Kings Cross/St Pancras Mainline Railway Station & Eurostar Terminal, each being less than a five-minute walk away.

Extra information

Disabled access

The hotel has 13 bedrooms specifically designed and fitted to accommodate wheelchair users or people with reduced mobility. Although the hotel has no public parking, they do offer two accessible parking bays available at the front of the hotel. All public areas and bedrooms and most of their meeting facilities have stepless access or are accessible by passenger lifts.

Car parking

The Novotel London St Pancras does not have any car parking at the hotel – the spaces on the forecourt are zoned for disabled parking only. However they have an arrangement with their sister hotel, the IBIS, that they can use their car park for their guests.

The details of the car park are as follows:

Location: IBIS EUSTON
3 Cardington Street
NW1 2LW

Cost: £20 for up to 24hrs upon production of Novotel London Euston invoice at time of payment at Ibis reception.

Details: Guests receive a car park ticket upon arrival and need to get this validated at Ibis's reception to retrieve their car. Spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis